Keeping Your Team's Wellness in Mind as we Transition

Professional Development Session Human Resources Community of Practice Friday, June 25, 2021

HRCP Subcommittee Members

Melissa Bowers, Business Manager, English Department
Cory Farragher-Gnadt, Classification and Compensation Analyst
Tiffany Lundy, Learning and Development Manager
Jen Mirabile, Sr. HR Programs Coordinator
Patrick Moore, Associate Director, FASS Human Resources and Payroll
Danielle Parmenter, Executive Asst., Office of Research and Innovation
Kate Stoysich, Health Promotions Specialist, University Health Services

Session Objectives

- Understand the importance wellness for your teams
- Review the phases of change and a strategy for a new beginning
- Discuss ideas for supporting employees during this transition
- Highlight employee and supervisor resources

Wellness for Your Teams

Kate Stoysich, Health Promotions Specialist, University Health Services Wellness is an active process through which people become aware of, and make choices toward, a more successful existence

- National Wellness Institute

Eight Dimensions of Wellness

EMOTIONAL

Coping effectively with life and creating satisfying relationships.

8 DIMENSIONS OF

WELLNESS

ENVIRONMENTAL

Good health by occupying pleasant, stimulating environments that support well-being.

INTELLECTUAL

Recognizing creative abilities and finding ways to expand knowledge and skills.

PHYSICAL

Recognizing the need for physical activity, diet, sleep, and nutrition.

FINANCIAL

Satisfaction with current and future financial situations.

SOCIAL

Developing a sense of connection, belonging, and a well-developed support system.

SPIRITUAL

Expanding our sense of purpose and meaning in life.

OCCUPATIONAL

Personal satisfaction and enrichment derived from one's work.

Important aspects of self-care and wellness

- Self-care looks different for everyone
- We need self-care in multiple dimensions of ours lives
- Self-care is serving our basic needs in a sustainable way
- All forms of self-care are valid
- Boundaries are part of self-care

Wellness Routine Reflection and Planning

Wellness Routine

Wellness Activity Ideas
Physical	Emotional	Mental	Personal-Growth
Movement Balanced diet Cooking Napping Stretching	Therapy Affirmations Gratitude Mindfulness Journaling	Meditation Decluttering Crafting Reading Podcast	Hobbies Trying new things Relationships Goal setting Spirituality

Directions: Fill in the box below with ideas for you generally utilize to improve and prioritize your wellness. For inspiration, check the ideas above and try completing the following sentences:

I feel inspired when I...

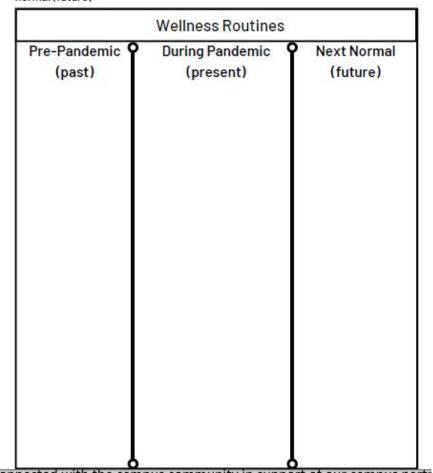

I feel most energized when I...

To feel my best, I need to...

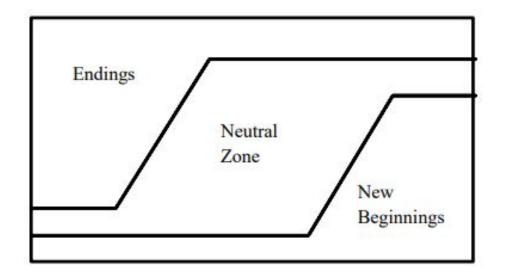

I feel at peace when I...

	Wellness Activity Ideas
Physical	Emotional	Mental	Growth

Directions: Now that you've thought about wellness strategies you generally use, please complete the below chart, thinking about your wellness routines pre-pandemic (past), during the pandemic (present), and adjusting to a new normal (future)

The Transition Model

It isn't that change is HARD, it's the TRANSITION that's hard.

Phases of Change

Endings are about losses - Time of letting go

- A time of leaving the old ways
- A time of ending
- 7 types of losses
- Acknowledge the losses

The Neutral Zone

- The old is gone, but the new isn't fully functional
- A phase of realignment and
  - Testing and discovery
  - concern needed

The New Beginning

- Coming out of transition
- Review and adjust
- Discovering a new identity
- Support and encouragement needed

The New Beginning

Focus on releasing energy into a new direction and towards a new identity

Ambivalence

- Anxieties
- Sense of riskiness
- Desire to stay in neutral zone

Timing

- Cannot be forced
- Must be encouraged, supported, and reinforced

Strategy for the New Beginning

Purpose

- $\circ$  Focuses on what change is and why it's needed
- Connection to interests is important
- Real, addresses problems, home-grown

Picture

- How the outcome will look and people will participate in this
- Create a visual of what this looks like: how work is done, feeling of new reality, etc.

Strategy for the New Beginning (cont.)

Plan

- Step by step plan that is detailed and at personal level
- Oriented to processes

Participation

- Having a part to play is critical to helping people feel included
- People see themselves in their new roles
- Ideally also play a role in the actual transition
- Gives people a deeper understanding of the goals

Supporting Employees During the Transition

- Reentry/transition is hard
- Deep listening, empathy and support needed for each employee
- Communication is key at all levels
- Keep wellness on your radar

Supervisor Considerations

- Acknowledge the emotions
- Stay up to date on UO rules and policies
- Discuss each employee's return to work plan
- Be familiar with the resources on campus to support managers and supervisors with difficult conversations

Be Reflective and Flexible

- Evaluate what is working and what is not
- Be prepared to adjust your course iterative process

Break-Out Room Activity 10 minutes

In your break-out room HR Partners will discuss the employee situations below to document ideas about how to support different employee transitions. Feel free to work on all situations or just a few.

- How do we support employees who never left campus/returned earlier than fall 2021?
- How do we support employees New to campus?
- How do we support employees returning to an on-campus work schedule this fall?
- How do we support employees who are returning to work on a hybrid work schedule?
- How do we support employees who will continue to work remotely?

Using the shared document highlight your ideas for supporting each type of employee by your break-out room number.

Link: https://uoregon-my.sharepoint.com/:w:/g/personal/mirabile_uoregon_edu/EdTor7GLkNlOhpwqeZGOxVsBb9u-TyiC4 9B7myPguYCLQ?e=uRl1Ld

Ideas from the Break-Out Room Share Document

Break-Out Room Activity 5 minutes

In your break-out room please share the wellness strategies that specifically worked for you over the last year that you plan to continue and where there are still areas of growth for you or your team?

Employee and Supervisor Resources

Path to Fall -Employee Support

Resources to help employees get started in thinking about the fall transition

Path to Fall Supervisor Support

Priority resources including talking points for return to work, Guide to Leading Teams in a COVID-19 World and MyTrack Supervisor Discussion Sessions

Employee and Labor Relations Department

The ELR team partners with supervisors to administer employment strategies to support the department and the University's mission and strategic initiatives.

Martin Stanberry, ADA Coordinator – WorkplaceADA@uoregon.edu

EAP Consultation and Support for Supervisors

Cascade Centers, Inc. supports managers with employee related concerns. Contact them for assistance.

Employee and Supervisor Resources

Ombuds Office

The Ombuds Program offers all members of the campus community a central, safe, and easy place to gain access to support and problem-solving resources.

EAP Services for Eligible Employees

The EAP is a FREE and CONFIDENTIAL benefit that assists eligible employees and their family members with any personal problems, large or small

Employee Engagement

University HR has assembled a guide for supervisors/employees to reinforce strategies already used or to help generate new ideas. This guide reinforces the ideals of our UO Connection: engagement, experience and excellence.

LinkedIn Learning

LinkedIn Learning gives UO employees unlimited access to its comprehensive resources and expert instructors. It offers personalized learning recommendations based on experience and individual utilization.

Employee and Supervisor Resources

Wellness Newsletter

Subscribe to the UO Wellness Listserv managed by the UO Wellness Ambassador Program to receive monthly emails

Work-Life Resources

The UO recognizes the importance of wellness and is committed to helping employees balance their work, educational and personal responsibilities.

University Wellness Programs

A variety of wellness programs, including WW and LifeBalance, are available and intended to compliment the insurance protection provided in the University's employee benefit package

You @ UO (new employee orientation and webpage)

Employees have access to opportunities unique to members of the university community. Being an employee at the University of Oregon has its perks

Reference Materials

- The 8 Dimensions of Wellness created by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
- Change and Ambiguity in the Workplace presentation, UO Wellness Ambassador Program, University of Oregon
- The Transition Model, The Table Group/Transition Management Notes
- Ways to Transition Staff Smoothly During Periods of Change, University of Michigan Medical School
- Handling Change Gracefully –Tips for Weathering Times of Transition in the Workplace, Crisp, Kaycee, American Bar Association, June 2019
- 5 Tips on checking in with employees during the pandemic, Studenroth, Jamie,
   Understood webpage covering disability inclusion work

Thank you for attending today's session.

We will make the shared document available on our HRCP highlights webpage along with the presentation slides.

If you have questions about this presentation, please contact Jen Mirabile, mirabile@uoregon.edu.

