Discrimination, Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct: Responsibilities for HR Professionals

Nicole Commissiong
AVP/Chief Civil Rights & Title IX Officer
Investigations & Civil Rights Compliance
Responsibilities for HR Professionals

HR professionals must report:

• Allegations of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation by employees.
• Allegations that pay is not equitable.
• Allegations that a job applicant was treated unfairly based on a protected characteristic during a search.
• Child abuse and neglect to DHS or law enforcement:
  • Report reasonable belief that abuse/neglect occurring.
  • A child is a person under the age of 18, including non-students.
• Obligation is with you 24/7.
What Is Discrimination?

• Disparate treatment: An allegation that an adverse action is motivated in whole or in part by the protected characteristic. An adverse action includes actions that significantly change the terms and conditions of employment.

• Disparate impact: Disparate impact occurs when a policy, requirement, or regularized practice, although neutral on its face, adversely impacts persons in a protected class and is not necessary to achieve an important university purpose.
What Is Harassment?

• Unwelcome verbal or physical conduct based on a protected characteristic that is sufficiently severe or pervasive that it substantially interferes with an individual’s employment, education or access to university programs, activities, or opportunities, and would have such an effect on a reasonable person who is similarly situated.

• Unwelcome conduct must be based on a protected characteristic: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy (including pregnancy-related conditions), age, physical or mental disability, genetic information (including family medical history), ancestry, familial status, citizenship, service in the uniformed services (as defined in federal and state law), veteran status, expunged juvenile record, and/or the use of leave protected by state or federal law.
How Will the University Respond?

• OICRC will invite the complainant (person who experienced harm) for an interview and assess whether conduct that has been alleged may be a policy violation.

• If the conduct at issue would not violate a policy, OICRC will work with ELR to address the reported conduct, as appropriate. Bear in mind that sometimes students and employees object to conduct that is permissible, including speech that is permissible.

• If the conduct at issue may be a policy violation, OICRC will open an investigation.

• Discipline for OAs and classified employees imposed by ELR.
• Discipline for faculty imposed jointly by Provost & ELR.
HB 3456

- Passed in Summer 2023 & took effect upon signing
- Requires annual sexual misconduct prevention training for all employees and students

MyTrack Reporting Update

Maeve Anderson, Associate Director, Talent Acquisition
Demographic Reports – Now Available Directly to You!

Demographic reports will be available to those with access to the requisition for a search.

With just a few clicks, you’ll be able to easily run the report.

There will be some limitations – the report will not generate results for searches with fewer than 10 candidates in an eligible status.

It will be important to follow the guidelines we’re about to go over so that we’re protecting our candidates’ identities.
Why, When, and How to Use a Demographic Report

Why

Know why you are running the report and how you plan to use the data.
Reports should not be run without a planned use.

When (and when not)

Prior to the close date if you are using to inform recruitment.
On the close date to document your pool.
NOT daily or more frequently than necessary.

How to use

Compare to other data sources to inform your search.
AAP and Field Availability Estimates can give you an idea of the diversity you can expect to see in your pool.
Ask your recruitment consultant if you need help.
With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility

• The purpose of reviewing a demographic report is to assess the overall diversity of your pool, not to identify candidates’ identities.
• Data should be reviewed and considered in aggregate.
• If you share the report with the search committee, please prepare them to use the data appropriately (e.g. to generate new recruitment ideas and NOT to speculate on individual candidate identities).
How to Run the Demographic Report

1. Open the Requisition
2. Click on “Reports” tab
3. Click on “Download”
